

MORE THAN
1,000
INDUSTRY LEADERS

have completed Builders Code training courses to help improve their workplace culture. Based on their feedback, here's what training participants are saying:

AFTER TAKING THE TRAINING

Participants demonstrated a strong awareness of the importance workplace culture can have on safety, productivity, and retention.

80%
are better aware of best practices with regards to workplace culture

90%
are aware that workplace culture can improve safety

92%
are aware that workplace culture can improve productivity

91%
are aware that workplace culture can improve retention of employees

92%
are aware that workplace culture can reduce risk

Effectiveness of Training Courses

(to help improve your worksite culture)

Builders Code training participants understand the training is important to help provide them with the tools needed to be effective and achieve their goals:

said the course materials were helpful

rated the course as good or excellent thought the course was effective rated the overall effectiveness of the instructor as 4/5-5/5

“ As a manager dealing with people daily, I find this training necessary. Very informative, good presentation, well-spoken. ”

“ It was clear and informative about potential blind spots in my own experiences. ”

“ It was made mandatory due to an incident and now we have resolved so many issues. It was awesome. ”